● ABOUT ME

I think one of the qualities of my character that I thank God for, is being ambitious and able to plan my future best. This can be exemplified by getting high marks during my undergraduate studies till working in a highly-ranking international company in the field of Aquaculture nowadays. My previous knowledge of Aquatic Sciences puts me in an excellent position for the role of this job. I have handled celebrity-related communication plans and outputs, project-managed events, and worked with managers and VIPs on field missions.
