As a Marine Engineer with 10 years of experience and a chief engineering license obtained in 2019, I worked as a duty engineer on merchant vessel firms based in Turkey, Germany, and Greece. Since October 2021, I have been working as a Marketing Manager, which has allowed me to excel in my management and planning skills and navigate personal and client relationships. I would like to combine my technical background and know-how with the soft skills and management capabilities that I have obtained during my current position. I am looking for an offshore job opportunity in the maritime industry or related engineering field
