

Dear Sir,

I am pleased to write you regarding Marine Chief Engineer Vacancy; I do believe that my technical experience, education, and qualification make me a highly competitive candidate for this position or higher as well.

I have bachelor's degree in marine engineering and naval architecture (Alexandria University) and unlimited chief engineer certificate of competency, working for Maridive & oil Services – Alexandria – Egypt since March 2004, started as third engineer, until promoted to chief engineer in 2010 onboard different types of DPII vessels & different location as well all around the world, & assigned as technical superintendent responsible for DPII vessels for about two years, then back to sea due to special jobs onboard DPII vessels as well for one & half year, till I backed to the head office again on mid of April 2022 as technical superintendent (acting as Technical Manger) till now.

Having more than 19 years of work experience within marine industry, in different capacities, where I acquired management skills and a versatile practical experience in various aspects.

Having sailed with multinational individuals contributed an extra management skill, which enhance & positively an exquisite teamwork.

I enclose my resume as a step in exploring the possibilities of employment, hope my qualification and experience meet your requirements, to fulfil the vacancy.

*Best Regards,
Amr Mohamady*
