ABOUT MYSELF

I am a disciplinary creative professional with a passion for Maritime field. At young age i got interested in ships and i researched a lot about it and talked with many seafarers and got to know about the life at sea. Now I am pursuing my dream to be a seafarer.

I am an excellent communicator: my academic background in English and other languages are very good and also I am a fast learner and a excellent student in my university. I also done sea sports in my home country Turkey. I am also a professional Laser(dinghy) sailor.
