About Me

Good day, recruitment manager! Briefly about myself. I started my career as a cook in 2006 with restaurants in Odessa, Ukraine, mainly Japanese cuisine. I took part in the opening of restaurants, and creating new menus in these restaurants. In 2012, I decided to become a ship's cook, started working at sea on bulk cargo vessels, then moved to the container fleet, after which I tried working on different types of vessels a couple of years ago I switched to the offshore fleet. The offshore fleet allows me to fully develop as a cook since the budget is much higher than on merchant ships.
