A professional seafarer with over 15 years of experience in the maritime field, having held leadership positions such as Master and Chief Officer on various vessels. I possess high-level skills in navigation management and maritime safety, with extensive knowledge in handling challenges in various maritime regions.

I am seeking an opportunity that allows me to leverage my professional expertise and leadership skills in the maritime field to manage and operate vessels effectively and efficiently. I aspire to work with a professional team in a dynamic environment that supports continuous development and adheres to the highest standards of maritime safety and quality.
