Notes

The reasons that prompted me to leave my previous company: Previous company Empire Navigation Inc. have lost their commercial operation of their very attractive fleet of 50K dwt tankers where the real Owner Cargill have decided to sell the ships to the new Owner that forced most of seafarers to look for other companies. Long gap in sea service since my last disembarkation: Medical issues of my wife with a surgery and side effects of surgery that required my presence and assistance during post-surgery and recovery period 2024-2025.
